Barrie, Ontario,

Was born at Barrie, July 9th, 1868. He was elected Mayor by acclamation in January, 1902, and again in January, 1903, his present term of office expires December 31st, 1903.

MR. BOYS is a graduate barrister and solicitor, of Osgoode Hall, Toronto, practising in Barrie. He is Curator of the Simcoe County Law Association, 2nd Vice-President of the Ontario Municipal Association, and President for the Canadian Tennis Association. He is a Conservative in politics, and Secretary of the Centre Simcoe Conservative Association.

WILLIAM A. BOYS,
Mayor of the Town of
BARRIE, ONT.

Joseph George Laurendeau,

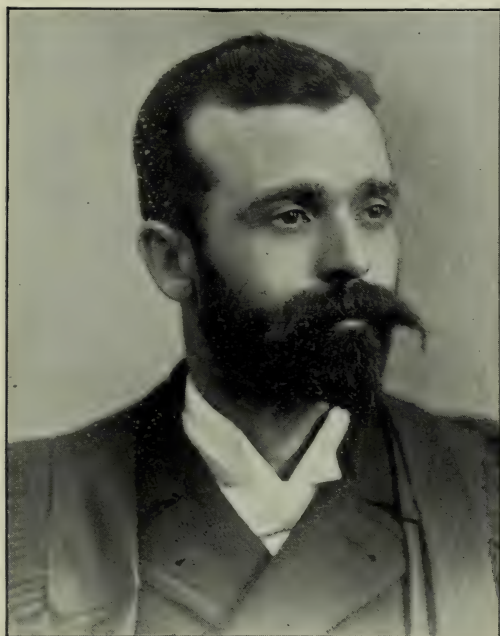

MAYOR OF THE TOWN OF

Beauharnois, Quebec,

Was born at St. Barthelemi, on the 28th of May 1859. He was elected Mayor by acclamation on January 16th, 1900, it being the first office he has consented to hold.

MR. LAURENDEAU is a lawyer by profession, being a member of the Beauharnois legal firm of Seers & Laurendeau. He is the attorney for the Beauharnois Branch of the Merchants Bank of Canada, of the New York Central & Hudson River Railway Co., and also a member of the School Board.

As Crown prosecutor, in 1895, MR. LAURENDEAU succeeded in securing a conviction in the Shortis murder case, in which trial Shortis was defended by Messrs. J. N. Greenshields, H. C. St. Pierre and Geo. C. Foster, the well known attorneys of Montreal. This was considered a great victory for MR. LAURENDEAU, and attracted much comment throughout the country.

JOSEPH GEORGE LAURENDEAU,
Mayor of the Town of
BEAUHARNOIS, QUE.

Robert James Graham,

MAYOR OF THE CITY OF

Belleville, Ontario,

BRAMPTON, ONT.

David B. Wood,

MAYOR OF THE CITY OF

Brantford, Ontario,

Was born near St. Mary's, Ontario, on August 22nd, 1858, and was elected Mayor of Brantford by the Reform party in January, 1901, and re-elected by acclamation in 1902, his present term expiring in January, 1903.

MAYOR WOOD was on the Aldermanic Board for five years previous to his elevation to the Mayor's chair. He also served as President of the City Reform Association for several years. He is a Past Master of the Brantford Masonic Lodge and Past Chief Ranger of the I.O.F. He is a member of the Board of Trade and engaged in business as a miller and dealer in grain, etc. It is interesting to note the improvements in the City of Brantford made during MAYOR WOODS' régime. The flood prevention work has been completed; the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway has been diverted so as to reach the city; the Street Railway has been vastly improved and extended under new management, and connects with Paris and other towns; a handsome monument has been erected to the boys who fell in South Africa; the Carnegie Library is under way; the parks have been enlarged and beautified and building operations are double in value to any former period in the city's life. A general advance in all lines is on in Brantford.

DAVID B. WOOD,
Mayor of the City of
BRANTFORD, ONT.

Thomas A. Wilson,

MAYOR OF THE TOWN OF

Bridgewater, Nova Scotia,

Was born at Barrington, Shelburne County, Nova Scotia. He was elected Mayor of Bridgewater in August, 1902, his present term expiring in February, 1903.

UNDERWOOD served as an Alderman of the city for seven years, being Chairman of Public Works for four years, Chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Commission for one year, and of Finance for one year. He was elevated to the Mayor's chair in December, 1901, and his present term expires in January, 1903. Mr. Underwood is also a Trustee of the Baptist Church, and a Trustee of the Masonic Lodge No. 60.

THOMAS UNDERWOOD,
Mayor of
CALGARY, N.W.T.

J. E. Diamond,

MAYOR OF THE TOWN OF

Campbellford, Ontario,

Was born in Seymour Township, County of Northumberland, on September 28th, 1862. He was elected by vote of the citizens as Mayor of Campbellford in January, 1902, his present term expiring in January, 1903.

MAYOR DIAMOND is engaged in business as a harness maker and dealer in carriages, furs, etc. in which line he has built up a most substantial trade. His elevation to the highest office within the gift of his fellow townsmen shows a just appreciation of his merit as a progressive business man and citizen.

J. E. DIAMOND,
Mayor of the Town of
CAMPBELLFORD, ONT.

William Abner Nichols,

MAYOR OF THE TOWN OF

Carleton Place, Ontario,

Was born in that town on the 4th of February, 1870. He was elected by the ratepayers of Carleton Place as Mayor in January, 1902, his present term expiring on December 31st, 1902.

In business life, MR. NICHOLS is Treasurer of the A. Nichols & Sons manufacturing interests at Carleton Place. He is the youngest Mayor the town has ever elected.

WILLIAM ABNER NICHOLS,
Mayor of the Town of
CARLETON PLACE, ONT.

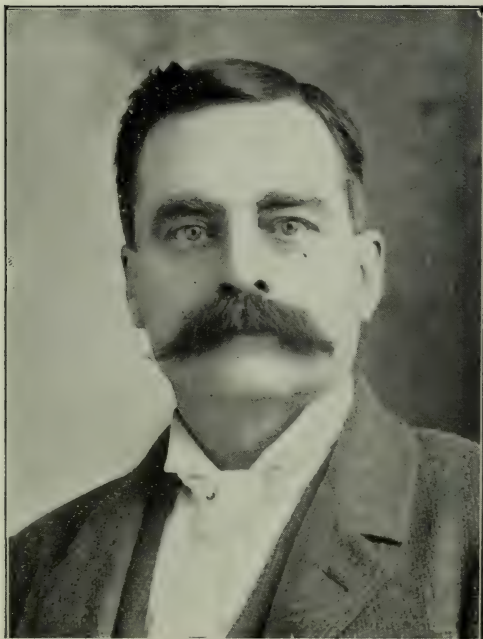

Frank Williams,

MAYOR OF THE TOWN OF

Carman, Manitoba,

Was the first, only and present Mayor of Carman. He was elected when the village was incorporated and has since been twice re-elected by acclamation.

MR. WILLIAMS served in the Egyptian expedition under Sir Evelyn Wood in 1882, and took part in the siege of Tel el Kebir and the capture of Arabi Pascha. After a short sojourn in London, England, his native city, Mr. Williams came to Manitoba in 1884 and has been practically in the Carman district ever since—sixteen years at least in Carman. He is an expert accountant, and has made a special study of municipal work and auditing. He has done considerable service to the provincial government as an auditor of municipal accounts. He is Deputy Registrar in the Lands Titles office at Carman, and does a considerable business in handling collections for various companies.

FRANK WILLIAMS,
Mayor of the Town of
CARMAN, MAN

James Warburton, M.D.,

DARTMOUTH, N.S.

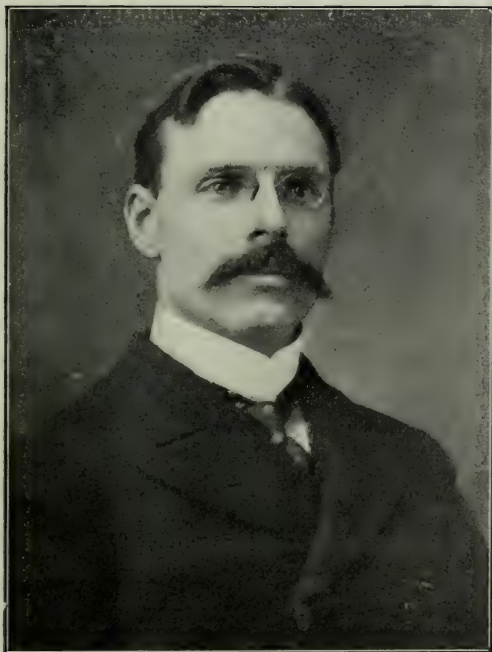

Henry C. Macauley,

MAYOR OF

Dawson City, Yukon Territory,

Was born at Lindsay, Ontario, where he received his education and spent his boyhood days. In 1885 he made his first venture away from the paternal roof, entering the employ of the Minnesota and Ontario Lumber Company at the Lake of the Woods, where he remained two years. His first employment with that company was as a common laborer in the woods where he swung an axe, drove team and rolled logs. His promotion was rapid and at the time of his departure for the West he was assistant manager of the company. Upon arriving at Victoria he entered the employ of the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Company as accountant. That position he held for three years, and then joined the firm of Cowan & Wilson, wholesale grocers, as city salesman. He remained with the firm a year in that capacity and then took charge of their business office under a three years' agreement, a contract which was subsequently renewed for another period of three years. At the completion of the last contract, MR. MACAULEY for the first time entered business for himself, the firm being known as Sprate & Macauley, general shipping and brokerage. The firm continued in business until May 1898, when it was dissolved, MR. MACAULEY joining hands with his brother, James S. Macauley, opening up a general merchandise establishment in Dawson in June, 1898. Prior to that time the name of Macauley was well known along the Yukon river, "Jim" having been engaged in trading with the interior since the Birch River excitement of 1895, and none was better or more favorably known than he.

The firm of Macauley Bros. is one of the strongest in the city, their retail store is on First Avenue, below the Fairview Hotel, the wholesale being on Third Avenue. One of the best evidences of MR. MACAULEY'S faith in the stability of Dawson is shown by his erection last summer of one of the finest residences in the city at a cost of $8,000.—From the "Dawson News," February 7th, 1902.

HENRY C. MACAULEY,
Mayor of
DAWSON CITY, Yukon Territory.
